FIRE COMPANIES-The Danville News in an article in regard to a late fire in that town uses the following language, which will apply equally well o this city.

"While on this subject we feel it to be a duty to commend the devoted action of our fire companies. The young men composing these companies, do a great deal of here work, disagreeable at all times, sometimes dangerous, and they frequently imperit health and life in their self sacrificing efforts for the public safety. We have frequently seen them working cheerfully and boldly in the face of dauger, drenched with water and schorched with heat, with no promise or hope of reward, save the consciousness of a public duty well performed, while others upon whom the labor and danger was equally obligatory stood idly by criticising their actions. Our citizens and especially property owners should make it a point to foster and encourage these orgauizations. They should be thoroughly equipped and every member handsomely and comfortably uniformed at the public expense, and above all they should receive the warm and grateful thanks of the people for the salvation of whose property they incur toil and danger.

Hon. George Peabody.

White Sulphur Springs, Va., Aug. 2, 1869. Dr. J. S. Pemberton—Dear Sir: 1 am gratified to inform you that the Globe Flower Cough Syrup has been of great benefit to me. I have been suffering with throat and lung disease for some time, and used many of the most celebrated remedies on the continent, and can conscientiously say that none proved so pleasant and beneficial in my case as your remedy. With my good wishes for your success,

I am yours respectfully, GEORGE PEABODY. Globe Flower Cough Drup cures Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, Pleurisy, Pain and Soreness in the Breast, and will positively cure Consumption. We shall publish in the Gazette Testimonials of great and good men of the na-tion, whose words cannot be doubted, in regard to the merits of Globe Flower Syrup. We prefer to let them speak.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER will soon celebrate its centennial year. More than three quarters of a century ago it grew into life a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia.

During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself romptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of jour alism. Every year NEW FEATURES will be added.

THE GAZETTE MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superfluities only lopped away, of all the current news of the world.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of Especial attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, especially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as cow, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bills of local interest will be given.

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the peo-In its Commercial columns the especial feature will be promptness and accuracy. The sarmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. Never before did it pay so well to tell the public what is for sale.
